INDEPENDENT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
SAVANNAH, GEORGIA

Orgonized in 1775, the building is noted for its architectural beouty. Original structure was destroyed by fire in 1889. Orgonist Lowell Moson composed the hymn "From Greenlond's Icy Mountoins" here. Woodrow Wilson first morried in the monse of the church in 1885.

Photography by Ernest Ferguson
30945-B

June 30 1932

Pub. by Photo Arts, Winnsboro, S. C.

Made by DEXTER WEST PACO. S. C.

PLACE STAMP HERE

POST CARD